“Blessed are the pure in heart for they will see God.”

Matthew 5.8

Purity of heart is a strong Biblical theme

(Ps. 73.1; 51.10; 24.3-4 et al)

- “Heart” is our inner world, the “real” person.
- “Pure” means consistent or having integrity.
- The pure in heart are good from the inside out.
- They “see” God in their daily life and at the end of their life.

Is there a simple, not necessarily easy, way to be pure in heart?

A lesson taught by the dying:

- We die as we live. We are building our final moments every day as we live from the inside out.

There are other “heart” states:

1. Perverse
(Pro. 11.20)
2. Divided
(Jas. 4.8; 1.5-8)
3. Pure

Cultivate being present to God and to the people around you.
